1975-2020

*45 Years of Building
Community Through Local Philanthropy*

The Four Way Community Foundation serves Josephine and western Jackson counties by providing grant support derived from donations and earnings on invested funds.

This year we celebrate our 45th anniversary!

The endowment, originally created by Rotarians and other generous citizens, has increased with additional gifts and investment growth to a total of almost $9 million. Over these years, The Four Way Community Foundation has given community projects funds exceeding $7 million.
