Comments:

Applications must be mailed to The Four Way Community Foundation at the post office box above and received no later than April 1, 2017. Notification of approval or denial will be mailed to applicants in late May.

Applications are reviewed by the Four Way Community Foundation Board of Directors for approval. In all cases, the decision of the board is final. If an applicant is not successful, it should not be construed as disapproval of the work of the submitting organization or of the worthiness of their project. The foundation receives many more applications than it can fund.
